

Modern Slavery and Human Trafficking Statement

At Taylor Stage Services Ltd, we believe that Modern Slavery, in all of its forms, constitutes an abhorrent abuse of human rights. We acknowledge that businesses have a significant role to play in combatting modern slavery, both domestically and internationally.

TSS is committed to maintaining a culture where slavery, servitude, compulsory labour or human trafficking is quite simply, unacceptable and intolerable.

Every member of staff has a role to play in combatting this crime, by remaining alert to the risk of slavery, however small it may be, within our business and within our supply chain.

TSS operates within Great Britain and Ireland, with national suppliers procuring goods and services from within the UK and Europe.

To demonstrate our commitment to tackling modern slavery, TSS will:

Request our sub-contractor and supplier contracts we do business with, to comply with the Modern Slavery Act 2015.

Conduct appropriate due diligence in relation to the modern anti-slavery measures.

Maintain a robust recruitment and checking procedure, to ensure that all employees of TSS are appropriately vetted.

Conduct a risk assessment of our business to identify areas of vulnerability.

Deliver guidance to staff on preventing modern slavery within our business.

Encourage staff to report concerns and protect reporters of wrongdoing.

This statement is issued pursuant to section 54 of the Modern Slavery Act 2015.
